

Mali Samaj Talent Promotion Scheme

(Mali Samaj Pratibha Protsahan Yojana)

To promote socio-economic development of the Mali Samaj, The Mali Sansthan Jodhpur is implementing “Mali Samaj Pratibha Protsahan Yojana”. The scheme has multitude of objectives, which are as follows.

- To identify, nurture and promote genuine talent in community, so that full potential of community members can be realized.
- Help talented, genuine and needy students in career development by providing guidance, scholarship and other support.
- Encouraging community fellowmen to come forward to help such talent in pursuit of career development. The community leaders can help by kind, cash or logistic support.
- Creating a self-sustaining eco-system for education, career counseling, scholarships and other philanthropic support for potential and aspiring youth of the community.

How to identify Talent

Mali Sansthan Jodhpur will organize “Talent Search Online Examination” every year. The potential candidate from Mali Saini community of whole Rajasthan will apply for this scheme online on web site www.sainimalisamaj.com . After registration an online examination will be conducted to sort list the suitable talented candidates to award scholarship and other benefits. The eligibility and selection criteria procedure and criteria will be as follows.

- Student from Rajasthan Mali Saini Samaj will be eligible for this talent search. There is no minimum cut off percentage to appear in exam.
- Those who have completed graduation and above study are only eligible for this. Other eligible criteria are similar to that UPSC examination.
- The selection process will have two steps. In first step through online examination screening of all potential candidates will be organized.
- Best performing candidates will be sorted and listed for second step of selection process. In this the academic performance of candidate (class 12th and Graduation) and economic conditional of family and need for scholarship will be assessed by verification and interview etc.

- The selected candidates will be provided suitable Scholarship, guidance and other support to pursue competitive examination for UPSC (IAS and Allied services) and RPSC (RAS and allied services).

Examination requirement

Mali Sansthan Jodhpur will conduct Talent Search examination with help of professionals. The examination will be transparent fair and intended to identify real talent, who can perform in competitive examination and bring laurels to the community.

- The examination will be based on skills required in cracking UPSC examination for IAS and RPSC examination for RAS examination. These skills include general studies, mathematical aptitude, critical reasoning etc.
- The papers will be in dual language Hindi and English. The questions will be more on intelligence, presence of mind and applied knowledge rather than just factual. The pattern of questions will be similar to UPSC and other competitive examination.
- The question paper will have multiple choice questions with one correct answers. The paper is designed by education leaders who excelled in the field of competitive examination.
- There will be three papers. First and second will be for one hour each designed on pattern of UPSC syllabus. Third paper will be English, which will be just qualifying in nature. Since UPSC examinations are biased towards English language, a minimum proficiency in English for even Hindi medium school will help student to clear exams easily.
- The final Talent list will have weighted average of Talent search examination, 12th and Graduation scores and if required interview also.
- Further details about talent search and subsequent verification and scholarship will be provided as and when required.

Talent Search Committee

Mali Sansthan Jodhpur will constitute a committee of not more than eight persons to oversee the whole process of selection and raising resources to fund this scholarship programme.

- It will identify donors who are willing to support identified talented students for further career development.
- The committee will list 20-30 candidates every year for scholarships.
- For any further queries you may please contact on these numbers- 9672444499/9784830069/9414563992. and also keep searching web site of www.sainimalisamaj.com
